

Every Day dRAWING Challenge

The Every Day Drawing Challenge is from the Every Day Matters blog of Danny Gregory: (<http://dannygregory.wordpress.com/edm-challenges/>). An artist named Karen Winters created the original list. I invite you to participate and post your drawings on the Mona Lisa Lives Here Facebook page (<http://on.fb.me/PSoglu>) and on Instagram (www.instagram.com/monalivaliveshere). Please use hashtags: #everydaydrawingchallenge and #monalivaliveshere

- May 1 (120): Draw a flashlight
- May 2 (121): Draw a coin or some coins and journal about memories about coins from your childhood.
- May 3 (122): Draw something where shade is a prominent part of the subject
- May 4 (123): Draw a bell
- May 5 (124): Draw something yellow
- May 6 (125): Draw a bird
- May 7 (126): Draw a sponge
- May 8 (127): Draw a skyscape
- May 9 (128): Draw a view through a doorway from one interior room to another.
- May 10 (129): Draw people doing something.
- May 11 (130): Draw some school supplies.
- May 12 (131): Draw a spray bottle
- May 13 (132): Draw a chain
- May 14 (133): Draw a peach
- May 15 (134): Draw a familiar person place or thing, but from an unusual angle
- May 16 (135): Draw a salad
- May 17 (136): Draw or paint something that's alive – a living thing – animal or plant
- May 18 (137): Draw something you can turn on or off
- May 19 (138): Draw something soft
- May 20 (139): Draw something with a handle
- May 21 (140): Draw an envelope
- May 22 (141): Draw something with bristles
- May 23 (142): Draw something hot
- May 24 (143): Draw an herb or spice
- May 25 (144): Draw something square
- May 26 (145): Draw (or paint) a tree in autumn
- May 27 (146): Draw a favorite food
- May 28 (147): Draw or paint something made of wood
- May 29 (148): Draw or paint something soothing
- May 30 (149): Draw a broom
- May 31 (150): Draw a candle